

Welcome to the first weekly newsletter for the

Stop Child Trafficking NOW (SCTNow) Campaign.

Already, in less than 3 months from the official launch of this historic campaign, Stop Child Trafficking NOW is positioned to make a significant difference in fighting for this cause. Because of your help and the grace of God, we have a clear plan to combat the demand side of child trafficking. According to Dr. Laura Lederer of the U.S. State Dept. and other experts, our strategy is a missing link in ending this horrendous crime.

We have already seen hundreds of people just like you come on board to participate and make a personal difference. Indeed you ARE making a difference even though you may not see the extent of it just yet. Together, we are doing something that will change the world and hopefully put an end to child slavery in our generation.

To keep the momentum going, please continue your efforts by doing the following:

- Become increasingly knowledgeable on the issue by visiting our newly launched website SCTNOW.org where new information is being added regularly in order to keep you informed and equipped.
- Sign up for the WALK TO STOP CHILD TRAFFICKING event in NYC and around the nation happening on Sept. 27, 2009. The main event is in NYC, but 50 cities and 300 campuses are going to participate as well. If you cannot make it to NY, then you can help lead or sponsor an event in your city!
- Help us find Corporate Sponsors who will receive national recognition for their involvement. For as little as $5,000, or as much as $250,000 a church, organization or corporation can help sponsor this historic event. Our Sponsorship Packet is available at SCTNOW.org. (Please let us know of potential sponsors you are pursuing.)

Tell all your friends and family members to sign up now. There is no time to waste! Children and teens are crying out for intervention. By signing up more and more people (who will then receive regular updates from Lynette, Sundy Goodnight Campaign Director, and Greg Wark the Director of the Operatives Teams) our army will grow!

These simple actions are taking us closer to Stopping Child Trafficking NOW. Thanks for being on the team and stay tuned for more details when we write again next week.

Until then, feel free to ask any questions at info@sctnow.org. Someone will promptly return answers to your email questions. (Please keep in mind we are a volunteer-driven, grassroots organization dependent on people like you!)

With your energy behind this cause we have no doubt we will rally tens of thousands of people and raise millions of dollars to stop this hideous crime NOW. Thanks for your passion and support.

For the Children,

Ron and Lynette Lewis
